JAMES W. BALES MADE PRESIDENT

Alexandrian Receives A Unanimous Vote For Head of Elks

PLEASANT SESSION

Samuel Gompers, President American Federation of Labor, One of The Speakers Last Night.

James W. Bales, past exalted ruler of Alexandria Lodge of Elks and a member of the city council of Alexandria from the third ward, was unanimously elected president of the Virginia State Association of Elks at this morning's meeting. Mr. Bales succeeds President W. T. Baugh, of Petersburg.

The following is the complete list of officers elected;

James W. Bales, Alexandria, president.

J. V. Parker, Portsmouth, 1st vice president.

W. R. Laughrin, Norfolk, 2nd vice president.

W. Cliff Godsy, Petersburg, 3d vice president.

H. K. Hawthorn, Charlottesville, secretary.

J. B. Bliley, Richmond, treasurer.

Rev. Edgar Carpenter, Alexandria chaplain.

R. L. J. Gaylord, Hampton, Sergeant- at -arms.

This morning's session of the association was chiefly devoted to a discussion of matters connected with the development of the work of the organization so as to make it more useful to those attending its conventions and to develop Elkdom throughout the state. Action on the state trophy to be awarded the best degree teams was postponed until the next session.

President Bales appointed the following committees: Credentials Charles Johnson, E. C. Bradshaw and L. J. Schuman; auditing committee William Grimmel, Paul Bryan and Mose Miller.

Following the business session this morning the convention adjourned for luncheon which was served in the Elks. rathskeller. At 1.30 o'clock the delegates left Alexandria for Washington in 50 automobiles, all of which were decorated with American flags and purple and white, Elks' colors. A ride through the parks and suburbs of Washington will be taken and at 3:30 o'clock the visitors will be the guests of the local lodge at the American League Baseball park where they will witness the last game of the season. A section of the grandstand behind the Washington players' bench has been reserved for the Virginians.

At 8 o'clock the Alexandria Elks and their guests will attend the meeting of Washington Lodge, No. 15, and at the conclusion of the meeting they will be entertained at an oyster roast.

The largest social session ever given in Virginia took place last night, when 300 members of Washington Lodge were entertained in connection with the delegates to the convention. The Washington Elks reached here at 8:45 in two special trains. They were accompanied by the United States Soldiers' Home Band. They were met at the corner of King and Payne street by the Virginia Elks who paraded with them through the streets to theElks' home. There were 600 Elks in line and they were heartily cheered by the vast crowd that packed the streets.

At the social session, Robert S. Barrett, chairman of the local entertainment committee, was master of ceremonies. The program consisted of vocal selections by Miss Clara Naecker, of Washington, Harry Chick and George O'Connor, a monologue by John Gorman, of Washington lodge, No. 15, and recitations by W. S. Shelby, secretary of Washington lodge. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, delivered a brief patriotic address, and Samuel Richards, exalted ruler of Washington lodge, responded to the address of welcome. Fred Harper, past president of the association and chairman of the Elks' National Home Commission, presented "Andy" Chisholm, of Charlottesville, also a past president, with a handsome "cutglass" punch bowl with cups, also a stand. When the bowl was dropped and broken it was found to have been pressed glass and the recipient to be was led crest-fallen to his seat.

The visitors placed a handsome wreath on the tomb of George Washington when they visited Mt. Vernon yesterday. John G. Sizer, chaplain of Richmond lodge, delivered a short address and recited the Elks prayer.

WILL VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE

President Wilson Announces He Will Support Measure

President Wilson came out today for woman suffrage in New Jersey.

He announced that he would vote for the suffrage amendment in his home State on October 19. He will vote, he said, as an individual, not as the leader of his party, believing that woman suffrage is a matter to be settled by the State and not by the National Government, and that under no circumstances should it be made a party issue.

The President authorized the following announcement:

"I intend to vote for woman suffrage in New Jersey because I believe that the time has come to extend that privilege and responsibility to the women of the State; but I shall vote not as the leader of my party in the nation, but only upon my private conviction as a citizen of New Jersey called upon by the legislature of the state to express his conviction at the polls.

"I think that New Jersey will be greatly benefited by the change. My position with regard to the way in which this great question should be handled is well known. I believe that it should be settled by the States and not by the National Government, and that in no circumstances should it be made a party question ;and my view has grown stronger at every turn of the agitation."

The President's announcement of his intention to vote for woman suffrage was foreshadowed when Secretary to the President Tumulty and Secretary of War Garrison, followed by Secretary of Treasury McAdoo Secretary of Commerce Redfield, and Secretary of Labor Wilson, mounted the suffrage bandwagon.

The President has consistently refused to go on record favoring an amendment to the Federal Constitution providing nation-wide woman suffrage. His announcement today shows that he is still of the same mind that suffrage, like the liquor question, is one for the individual States to determine.

At the same time, it is believed that the President's announcement in favor of suffrage in New Jersey will have a large influence in carrying cause to victory in other States, and will make it probable that woman suffrage as a national issue will be given consideration at the next national convention, despite the President's present belief that it is not a party issue.

KILLED BY BAD NEWS

Wilmington, Del. Oct. 6—While at work Monday in the plant of the Pusey & Jones Company, Harry Smith, 35 years old, a native of Russia, who has been in this country only seven months, was informed that his wife had died in Russia. The next instant the man toppled over and died before a physician reached his side. Shock caused by news of his wife's death had affected his heart. Smith, who is said to have been unwell for several days, has three small children in Russia.

ITALIANS FIGHTING IN SNOW

Rome, Oct. 4—The following official statement from the Italian general headquarters has been issued:

"In the higher mountain regions, where snow is now thickly falling, there have been small engagements which ended in our favor at the Lagoscuro pass (at the head of the Genova Valley), and at Pramosio (in Carnia).

"In the Tolmino section Italian troops repulsed an attack directed against positions recently conquered by us on the heights of Santa Maria.

"There has been no event of any importance on the rest of the front."

GREEK PREMIER RESIGNS OFFICE

King Constantine Refuses to Sanction Policy of His Ministry

LANDING OF TROOPS

Venizelos, After Fight in Parliament, Had Committed Greece to Enter War With Allies

London, Oct. 6—The entire Greek cabinet has resigned, according to Athens dispatches today.

The resignations were presented today, following as a matter of course, the retirement of the Premier Venizelos.

Paris, Oct. 6—The French cabinet met this afternoon to consider the Balkan situation. President Poincare presided.

According to an Athens dispatch Premier Venizelos resigned because his war policy was not even supported by his own ministry. The other eight members of his cabinet were silent when a vote o fconfidence in the prime minister was taken in the chamber of deputies.

Salonika dispatches report that the French troops were greeted enthusiastically on their arrival at the Greek port.

"Greek officials and the populace greeted the French troops as allies, and in the same manner in which the French received British troops upon their arrival at Boulogne," it was stated.

Athens, Oct. 6—Elutherios Venizelos has again resigned as premier of Greece. His present resignation, like his former one, came as the result of his pro-entente sympathy.

King Constantine informed the premier yesterday afternoon that he was unable to support his ministry. The resignation followed:

Queen Sophia, of Greece, is a sister of the German Emperor.

With 70,000 allied troops already landed on Greek territory despite the protest of Greece, the situation created by Venizelos' resignation is critical.

It was upon the support of Premier Venizelos that the allies were hoping to secure the active co-operation of Greece.

When the first detachment of French troops arrived at Saloniki France notified Greece that they were going to help Serbia. Venizelos replied with a formal protest against the passage of foreign troops through Greek territory on the ground that it violated Greek neutrality.

The allied governments, however, made all preparations and gave orders for the landing of the troops. It is understood that they are to proceed to the Gueokheli-Uskup Railroad to guard the line.

Deprived of the support of Venizelos and with a protest already filed against the landing of the allied troops a march through Greek territory would place the allies in precisely the same position as Germany was placed when she invaded Belgium "for military reasons."

Germany continues her efforts to secure the neutrality of Greece. She has offered guarantees and assurances.

Athens, Oct. 6—Greece is able to put 180,000 men, fully equipped, in the field. Although the mobilization, which includes men up to 43 years of age, probably will call for 300,000 troops, those over the 180,000 cannot be armed.

It is said the government has sufficient funds to continue on a war footing for one month.

SNOW IN TWO STATES.

Flurry in St. Paul With Three to Six Inches in Black Hill.

St. Paul, Oct. 6—The first snow of the season fell here Monday, the light flurry continuing only a few minutes.

Deadwood, S. D., reports a snowfall of from three to six inches throughout the Black Hill, Sunday night, the first general fall of the season.

Oyster Season open, Rammel Cafe.

CLAM CHOKES AGED MAN

Sticks in Throat and Causes Death in Short Time.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6— A piece of clam which lodged in the throat of August Glackin, 70 years old, caused him to choke to death Monday evening in his home, ..o. 2112 Pemberton St.

Glackin, who for years worked as a carpenter in the neighborhood of his home, returned from work last evening and suggested to his wife that she have clam soup for supper. She agreed, and Glackin went out and purchased the clams. While his wife was making preparations for the supper, he picked up one of the raw clams and started to eat it. Suddenly he was seized with a violent fit of choking. Mrs. Glackin pounded him on the back and screamed for help. Neighbors responded to her cries and when they found that their efforts failed to ease Glackin's coughs they summoned the ambulance of St. Agnes' Hospital.

The aged man grew weaker and weaker from the violent disturbance in his throat and was scarcely breathing when the ambulance reached his home. He was dead when the ambulance arrived at the hospital.

MINNEAPOLIS "DRYS" GIVES UP

Concede Defeat by 2,000, But Make Charges of Fraud

Minneapolis, Oct. 6— Charges of fraud in connection with the Hennepin county option election here Monday were made last night by "dry" proponents, who said evidence of the alleged irregularities would be investigated and presented to the grand jury. The "drys" conceded their defeat by 2,000. Virtually complete returns show that they lost by 9,000.

Among the charges made was one that in some precincts "dry" ballots were thrown away and were not counted. Whiskey, it is charged, was given to electors in exchange for "wet" votes.

Complete returns showed that the total cast was 69,344, the largest known in the county. The vote for State officers last year was 51,987. The increase was a surprise.

At the headquarters of the "drys" it was said the struggle to oust the 433 saloons in Minneapolis had only been deferred.

According to the local option law passed by the last State Legislature the prohibitionists can petition for another election in three years.

VIRGINIA WILL BE LENIENT

Not Disposed to Force Payment From State of West Virginia

WILL WAIT FOR A TIME

Confident $14,000,000 Judgment Awarded by Supreme Court Will Be Settled Eventually.

Washington, Oct. 6—That no attempt to force West Virginia to make early payment of the $14,000,000 judgment rendered against her by the Supreme Court in the Virginia debt litigation should be taken by Virginia was agreed yesterday afternoon at a conference between the Virginia Debt Commissioners and legal representatives of Brown Bros., & Co., the New York bankers, who hold the bulk of the old debt certificates. Virginia will exhaust all friendly methods to collect the money before countenancing forceful means.

"The Virginia Debt Commissioners do not believe the people of West Virginia will knowingly defy the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States by refusing to pay the obligation," said State Senator H. H. Downing, chairman of the Virginia commission. "Therefore, we intend to give them plenty of time to study the case. We are not in favor of doing anything to force payment until the West Virginia Legislature has met and passed upon the question."

In view of this action it may be several years before another move is made in the Virginia debt litigation. The West Virginia Legislature will not meet until January, 1917. It is improbable that counsel for Brown Bros. & Co., will ask the Supreme Court to take steps to force payment, as the suit against West Virginia was brought and prosecuted in Virginia's name and the court will be governed by motions of the State's counsel.

The late Major Holmes Conrad, senior counsel for the debt certificate holders, had filed with the Supreme Court a motion asking for the appointment of a receiver to collect and disburse the money. It is understood now that this motion will not be pressed when the Supreme Court meets next week, as the Virginia Debt Commissioners held out for friendly and not coercive methods looking to the collection of the money.

At the conference yesterday were John G. Johnson, the noted Philadelphia lawyer, who has been retained by Brown Bros. & Co.; Sandford Robinson, counsel for the debt certificate holders, and State Senator Downing, Judge W. F. Rhea, David Pitt, Henry T. Wiskham, members of the Virginia commission, and Attorney-General John Garland Pollard, former Attorney-General W. A. Anderson and Judge Randolph Harrison, counsel for Virginia.

PHYSICIAN KILLED IN FIELD

Two Young Men Accused of Firing Fatal Shot.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 6—As a sequel to the murder Sunday at Branchland, W. Va., of Dr. A. M. Parsons, former county physician of Wood county, this State, a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Daner Colgrove, 18 years old, and Noah Briles, 20 years old.

Briles' father, William Briles, 58 years old, was shot Sunday by Dr. Parsons after they quarreled over a debt. He is in a dangerous condition at a local hospital. Deputy Sheriff Mack Adkins, arrested Colgrove last night, but stated he was unable to locate young Briles.

A shotgun, thought to have been the weapon used to kill Dr. Parsons, was found near the scene of the murder. The elder Briles was shot while he was digging potatoes on his farm. Alvah Briles, another son of the wounded farmer, said tonight his brothers were at their home at 8 o'clock Sunday night when Dr. Parsons was shot.

WAR SITUATION

Russia's Ultimatum to Bulgaria Expired Yesterday Afternoon.

London, Oct. 6— Russia's ultimatum to Bulgaria expired at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but up to a late hour last night, so far as was known in London, no answer had been received and none was expected.

It is taken for granted here that King Ferdinand and his ministers are definitely committed to the Germanic allies, and, in return for territory to be ceded after the war, some ports, including Constantinople, and all that remains of European Turkey, has undertaken to assist actively in the operations against Serbia, thus hoping to open the way for the Austro-German army, the objective of which is the Sea of Marmora.

Then Entente Powers, in this belief, have landed or are landing a force at Saloniki which will take upon itself the duty of protecting the main railroad through Serbia and Greece, and give what assistance it can to the Balkan allies, should they be attacked by Bulgaria.

The opposition in the Greek Chamber has also made protest against the policy of Premier Venizelos, which, it is claimed, is forcing Greece into an unnecessary war. The premier succeeded in getting the Chamber to pass a vote of confidence after a stormy all-night session, but the king subsequently notified the premier that he could not stand for the ministry's policy, whereupon Venizelos resigned.

The next move devolves upon Bulgaria, and as soon as she moves, the Anglo-French troops which are being mobilized will be put in motion, while the fleet in the Black Sea and the Aegean will assume their appointed roles.

Meanwhile, Russia, whose armies for five months have been retiring, along a wide front, from Riga to southeast of Vilna, according to unofficial reports, has already met with considerable success. This, however, is denied by Berlin, which says that all the Russian attacks have been repulsed.

On the western front, the big guns have again undertaken the task of attempting to level the German entrenchments, presumably in preparation for a continuation of the attacks which proved successful in Artois and Champagne. In some sectors there has been infantry fighting in which a trench, or a few yards of a trench, changes hands, this being particularly the case in the areas where the Allies have made their gain and wehere the Germans are trying to win back the lost ground.

The British fleet, too, is almost continuously bombarding the German positions on the coast of Belgium.

STEAMERS SUNK

London, Oct., 6—Announcement is made that the British steamers Haydn and Sailor Prince have been sunk. It is reported that the crew of the Haydn was saved and that some survivors of the Sailor Prince have been landed.

London. Oct. 6—Lloyds announces that the steamer Novo Castrian of Newcastle, has foundered. The members of the crew, three of whom were injured, were landed.

Athens, Oct. 6—The British steamer Arabia, en route from London to Piraeus, Greece, has been torpedoed by an Austrian submarine 12 miles south of Cythere. Thirty-five members of the crew were saved.

GERMANY YIELDS IN ARABIC CASE

Disavows Act of Submarine Which Torpedoed Ocean Liner

ADMITS THE LIABILITY

Ambassador Bernstorff Hands Secretary Lansing Communication of Disavowal of the Art

Washington. Oct 6—The most critical of the issues between the United States and Germany was amicably settled yesterday when the German government, through Ambassador von Bernstorff, disavowed the act of her submarine commander who sank the White Star liner Arabic on August 19 and offered indemnity for the two American lives lost on that occasion.

Formal assurances were given that the orders under which commanders of German submarines are now operating are so strict that there can be no recurrence of similar incidents.

This was an acceptance by Germany, without qualification, of the demands of the United States, and opens the way to a satisfactory settlement of all the points in controversy between the two governments.

The next question to be taken up is the disposition the Lusitania case. It was announced yesterday that the diplomatic negotiations in this case will soon be resumed. The impression prevails that Germany will be unable to formally disavow the act of her commender in sinking the Lusitania, because of her claim that he was acting under general instructions, but that she will express her sincerest regrets for the incident and will offer indemnity for the loss of Americans who went down with the ship.

The following is the communication from the German Ambassador to the Secretary of State:

"My Dear Mr. Secretary:

"Promoted by the desire to reach a satisfactory agreement with regard to the Arabic incident, my government has given me the following instructions:

"The orders issued by his majesty the Emperor to the commanders of the German submarine—of which I notified you on a previous occasion—have been made so stringent that the recurrence of incidents similar to the Arabic case is considered out of the question.

"According to the report of Commander Schneider of the submarine that sank the Arabic and his affidavit, as well as those of his men, Commander Schneider was convinced that the Arabic intended to ram the submarine. On the other hand, the imperial government does not doubt the good faith of the affidavits of the British officers of the Arabic, according to which the Arabic did not intend to ram the submarine. The attack of the submarine, therefore, was undertaken against the instructions issued to the commander. The imperial government regrets and disavows this act and has notified Commander Schneider accordingly.

"Under these circumstances my government is prepared to pay an indemnity for the American lives which, to its deep regret, have been lost on the Arabic. I am authorized to negotiate with you about the amount of this indemnity.

"I remain, my dear Mr. Lansing, yours, very sincerely,

(Signed) "J. Von Bernstorff.

"Washington, D. C."

This lot of collars and sets called forth enthusiastic comments when they were placed on sale Monday. Such values are rare and Washington women are quick to recognize such saving opportunities. The sheer texture of the organdies and chiffons of which they are chiefly composed throw into stricking contrast the beauty of the embroidery, and the rich heaviness of some of the laces of the filmy effect of the others. Collars are in all the new and different shapes, such as round square, shawl, long revere, quaker back, long pointed back, handkerchief pointed and other shapes. The laces arefilet, sombination, pointed, flat pointed venise and point venise in Irish crochet designs. Separate collars, each 55c

DELAY BARS DIVORCE

Waited Three Years to Reveal Collusion in Wife's Action Against Him

Frank M. Finley, who sued for an absolute divorce after his wife had been awarded an absolute divorce in July, 1909, which was set aside and annulled on January 16, 1914, was denied the right to maintain his action in an opinion handed down by Justice Siddons in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday.

Justice Siddons said that law and decency would be violated if the husband was allowed the divorce. The opinion reviews the various legal proceedings by his wife and husband. On June 2, 1909, Mrs. Mary A. Finley filed suit for an absolute divorce, alleging misconduct, and on July 23, 1909, she was granted a divorce and $20 a week alimony and counsel fees. This decree dissolved the marriage between the parties, says the opinion.

Rules were issued against the husband on August 9 and August 29, 1912 for him to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt for failure to pay alimony, and on September 30, 1912, he was ordered to pay the alimony in arrears. A third rule, alleging the nonpayment of $540, then due, was issued April 18, 1913. Finley in answer to the last rule, asserted that he had been prepared to sue for a divorce before his wife's suit was brought but was dissuaded to be placed in a compromising position before witnesses so that his wife could obtain the divorce. He denied he had actually been guilty of misconduct.

On this showing, the justice, who awarded the divorce to Mrs. Finley ordered an investigation and on January 16, 1914, signed a decree annulling the former decree. On the same day Finley filed suit for divorce against his wife. This suit was dismissed June 25, 1914, without prejudice.

The next day the husband filed suit making charges of infidelity against his wife. This came up last June before Justice Siddons, who halted the proceedings and took under advisement Finley's standing to maintain the suit, which was terminated by the opinion yesterday.

Justice Siddons points out that Finley's conscience only began to trouble him when his wife sought to enforce the decree of alimony, after they had been divorced for more than three years.

PASSING OF OLD LANDMARK

Building on North Washington Street Long Used for Educational Purposes is Being Razed

The old school building on the west side of Washington street, between Cameron and Queen, is being torn down. A handsome modern residence will be placed upon its site.

This structure, many years ago, used a sugar warehouse, was later fitted up and for a long time before the civil war was used by the late Benjamin Hallowell as a boarding school for youths. Robert E. Lee was a scholar at this institution. At the close of the war the late John S. Blackburn conducted the Potomac Academy in the building.

FALL OPENING.

D. Bendheim and Sons' fall opening and fashion display last evening was attended by a large and interested crowd.

The show windows and interior store decorations and the magnificent display of the new fall merchandise was a delight to the admiring throngs that paraded the isles of the store from 8 to 10 o'clock.

An orchestra furnished music for the occasion and all together it was an evening of pleasure for Alexandria people and a credit to the popular and progressive Bendheim's Store.

The remaining opening days offer an exceptional opportunity for the ladies' to make early selections from their new and beautiful stocks.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Mrs. Julia Fantrory an old an respected colored woman, died Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock at her resirence on South Columbus Street.

J. L. Bailey, a yard brakeman, of the Southern Railway, fell from a car in the Southern Railway yards this morning and was seriously injured. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where he was treated by Dr. M. D. Delaney.

Mrs. Delia Boyd, wife of Phillip Boyd, died yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital. Mrs. Boyd resided at 503 Queen street and is survived by her husband and two children. The body will be taken to 1632 Fuller street, Washington, where the funeral will be held.

CIRCUS ARRIVES TODAY

Street Pageant Witnessed by Large Portion of Community—Many at Evening Show

Robinson's Famous Circus arrived in Alexandri today and was hailed with a burst of glad welcome by residents and those residing in the surrounding country as they scrutinized the picturesque entrance of the strangers into strange lands, watching the rising and expansion of the tents, gazed with astonished eye upon the gorgeous street parade and flocked to the show grounds on north Alfred street, the scene of the exhibitions.

As the day progressed it became more and more convincingly evident that the circus is the most popular form of entertainment for small boys, some of whom are six and others sixty years of age.

Behind the first section two more trains were in pursuit. Steel runways were lowered to the ground from stock cars and yellow lettered flats and elephants and camels and great red wagons, their tops and sides masked in canvas, emerged. Eight and ten horse teams came from the stock cars, all harnessed and dragging empty traces behind them.

The pageant was all and more, in magnitude and sumptous beauty, than the Robinson management had promised. The two hundred Robinson horses elicited praise from all onlookers. They ranged from great Clydesdale and Percheron draft horses to tiny Shetlands.

The Nelson family are without doubt the best and most pleasing act in circusdom. There is no more wonderfully clever group of performers before the public. The Castellos, Melrose and Meers and the Riding Connors are skilled and daring equestrians. De Mare's bicycle baboons and monkeys are the climax of animal training. The Lorette Sisters present a dangerous suspension act. The clowns pleased. The Japs show wonderful skill. Robinson's War Elephants are educated to a degree of perfection The rings and stages also offer many other meritorious novelties.

The final performance will be given tonight at 8 o'clock. The doors will be open an hour earlier.

WESTER BEATS A. A. S.

Thrilling Contest Takes Place in New High School Lot Yesterday Afternoon.

Timely gains enabled Western High School of Washington, although outplayed by their opponents, to score a touchdown and goal yesterday afternoon at the new high school lot and thereby defeat the Alexandria High School in the second game of the local's football season, the final score being 7 to 0.

Paul S. Gilliam was elected tach- Fumbles were costly to the local boys, and their gains were ill-timed, although heavy and frequent. Features of the game were an intercepted forward pass by G. Pohl, A. H. S., fullback, the general backfield work of the local eleven, and the running back of kicks by Welchell, Western quarter.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings In Society.

The social event of the week was the wedding last evening of Miss Mary Glenn Uhler, one of Alexandria's most attractive and beloved young ladies, to Mr. John Thornton Ashton, popular professionally and socially. The marriage was solemnized in Christ Church, Rev. William J. Morton officiating.

The bride was gowhed in ivory satin, with drapery of old lace and fringe an heirloom of her great aunt's. The becoming veil, caught closely about the brow with real lace, fell the length of the train held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a handsome bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Eugene Walker, wore a white georgette crepe lavender taffeta bands outlining the points of the double tunic and the same shade dominant in the treatment of the bodice. She carried white crysanthemums bound with lavender tulle.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lucy Brown Uhler, and Miss Louise Payne, wore gowns following the same design with trimmings of canary. The short skirts of this season's cut displayed the slippers of like shade. They bore bouquets of yellow crysanthemums.

Mr. A. Griffith Uhler, of Pittsburg, served as best man. The groomsmen were Mr. A. Lennox Uhler, of New York, Mr. Bedford Brown, of Washington, Mr. Wilmer Waller and Mr. George Brent, and the ushers, Dr. Thomas Cochran and Mr. Thomas Franklin.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Uhler, in north Washington street. The house was tastily decorated with the autumn season offerings Dr. and Mrs. Ashton left later for their honeymoon trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Randall Elliott have announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Emily Louise Elliott, to Mr. Harry U. Badeau, of Bridgeport, Conn. The marriage will take place Saturday evening, October 16th, at eight o'clock at the apartment of Dr. and Mrs. Elliott at the Dresden, Washington, D. C.

Miss Elsie Machler, of Middle Village, N. Y., and Miss Loretta Damenjoffer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., have returned to their homes after a visit to Miss Ethel Allen, in north Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamond, after spending the summer in Orange, Va. have returned to their home at Braddock Heights.

Mrs. Haydon Henderson has returned to her home in Fredericksburg after a visit to her mother in this city.

WANT WILL AT MT. VERNON

Mrs. Charles R. Ball Confers With Judge Keith on Part of Ladies' Association.

The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association will urge that the suggestion of J. P. Morgan be followed and the Martha Washington will given a permanent repository at the home of the Washingtons in a fireproof vault, which Mr. Morgan has offered to build for it.

Mrs. Charles R. Ball, one of the vice-regents, has conferred with Judge Keith on the subject and will probably call on Governor Stuart before the end of this week. The authorities of Fairfax County have not yet signified their willingness to let the treasured relic go to another part of the State, but it is anticipated that they will yield to the wishes of Judge Keith Governor Stuart and the Mount Vernon Association.

WILSON DIPLOMACY.

The yielding of Germany in the Arabic case is hailed with satisfaction by people of all classes in the United States. It shows that President Wilson is the proper man to handle issues raised by the sinking of merchant ships by Germany and the drowning of Americans. With no bombastic display, the President has, through diplomacy, gained a concession of the demands made.

Had some hot-headed man been in the presidential chair at this unfortunate crisis graver results would have been inevitable, and had some specimen of another genus been chief executive of the nation our country would have remained passive and become as China, showng no resentment to any over act upon the part of the warring nations.

The Baltimore American, republican in politics, says:

Quietly, courteously, without the least bravado, but with a firmness which not even Germany could misunderstand, President Wilson has achieved a triumph for humanity and the safety of American lives and property. Germany has conceded, it seems every point made by the President in the Arabic matter, and has authorized Ambassador von Bernstorff to arrange indemnity.

We are inclined to believe that "continued mediation" and a peace-at-any-price attitude would not have brought about this happy result, which includes not alone admission of blame for what is past, but a definite guarantee that passenger ships will not hereafter be torpedoed without warning and non-combatants killed without good cause.

Rumor in Washington has it that the Kaiser's Government first began to understand that Wilson was not a William J. Bryan, when after the sinking of the Arabic a distinguished Teutonic diplomat hurriedly sought a conference with the President to talk it over and was informed that the discussion was closed and that the President could not be seen. It was only then, so thestory goes, that the diplomat was able to convince his Government that the Wilson Jaw was to dangerous to try to trifle with it any further.

TURKS AND ARMENIANS.

The Turks and Kurds are waging a holy war of extermination on the Armenians, according to sixteen members of theArmenian board of foreign mission who arrived at New York from Van, Turkey, on the Swedish steamer Hellig Olav yesterday.

Earnest Yarrow one of the missionaries, told how the Armenian population of Van, numbering 1,500, held out against 5,000 Kurds and a Turkish company, commanded by a German officer, from April 20 to May 17, when Russians arrived and relieved the town.

"We had six American and two Red Cross flags," said Mr. Yarrow, "and we flew these over the mission, but they were not respected by either of the combatants. The Turkish company arrived three or four days before the Russian relief came and the shrapnel from the Turk guns tore down all of our flags."

"We sheltered large numbers of Armenian women and children, but as soon as the Turks and Kurds had been driven away from the town virtually all of the Armenians turned out to loot the Turkish houses and duplicate the artrocities that had previously been practiced upon the Armenians, It was with great difficulty that they were restrained."

While we are not apologists for the Turks in their hatred to all persons who decline to cry, "Great is Allah and Mahomet is his prophet," it has at times been shown that some Armenians are wearing crosses upon their breasts but not in their hearts. According to the above they, too, at times commit violence. "They that live by the sword shall perish by the sword," was uttered many years ago. The truth of the saying has been apparent ever since.

BELIEVERS IN PRAYER.

When Arabham Lincoln reached Washington during the early part of 1861 he took rooms at the Willard Hotel. A man who occupied an adjoining room said that the President elect continued in prayer throughout the night. Lincoln referred to Solomon who had chosen wisdom in order that he might govern the children of Israel. His prayer was answered and the Illionisan referred often to this fact in his invocations, and earnestly prayed that he, too, might be blessed as was the son of David.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says:

That President Wilson knelt in prayer at a recent Cabinet meeting, and that the members of the Cabinet did likewise, is the story told by Bishop William M. Anderson, of the Methodrist Episcopal church. If the incident is true, and the bishop's authority was a United States Senator, who got it from a member of the Cabinet, it will appeal to the people of this country. If there ever was a President who could do such a thing without being accused of posing, Woodrow Wilson is he man. He has never made a grand-stand play.

We do not understand that it is a regular custom at Cabinet meetings to open the deliberations with supplications to the Higher Power, but on the occasion mentioned a "question of great moment" was to be considered and the President is reported as saying. "I don't know whether you men believe in prayer or not. I do. Let us pray and ask the help of God." And he went upon his keens and the Cabinet followed him while he made the invocation.

Posing in prayer is the act of the hypocrite and coward, but when a man of President Wilson's nature and character kneels before the Almighty the people of this country need not walk the floor at night, or at any time.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Two men blew open the vault of the State Bank at Maud, Okla., 15 miles south of Shawnee, Okla., Monday night and escaped with $4,000.

The German steamer Svionia was shelled in the Baltic Sea by a British submarine without previous warning, the Overseas News Agency declares. The submarine, adds the news agency, first flew the German flag and then the British.

A suit for legal separation and separate maintenance was filed in the Superior Court in Concord, N. H., yesterday by Mrs. Henry S Hollis, wife of United States Senator Hollis, on the grounds of incompatability. Mrs Hollis was formerly Grace Fisher Her counsel is Frank S. Steeter, a bitter political opponent of Senator Hollis.

Speaker Champ Clark and his son were in a posse that dispersed a mob of 20 men which yesterday attempted to lynch Harrison Rose, a negro charged with murdering a farmer near Bowling Green, Mo., The mob attecked the jail broke the outer door and were pounding with a sledge hammer on theinner door when the sheriff appeared with his posse.

Mrs. Sophie Friedenberg, 29 years old, killed herself with gas in the kitchen of her home at 1119 Robinson street southwest Washington, yesterday while her three-weeks-old baby lay asleep in a front room. When the police entered they saw the mother's wedding ring on a window sill. The woman's husband, Nathan Friedenberg, is employed as a clerk in the navy yard.

Found locked in a bank vault and telling a story of an attack by two robbers, which netted them $8,342. J. T. Adams, cashier of the State Bank of Keller, Texas, has, it is said, confessed that he himself had appropriated the cash missing from the vault. Of the money taken, $4,764 was recovered. Adams is held in jail under bond of $2,000 on a charge of embezzlement.

Germany is now attempting to influence public opinion in Russia in favor of a separate peace by means of tablets of chocolate on which is stamped a message urging the people to ask for the cessation of hostilities. The chocolate is made up in packages closely resembling those of a large firm in Vevey, Switzerland, and this concern has just made a protest against the practice.

After having made three attempts to end her life, Grace Denscher, 17 years old, told Magistrate Krotel in the Yorkville, N. Y., court yesterday that she could not promise not to make another attempt. She was held in $1,000 bail for the grand jury and an effort will be made to have her committed to an institution. "I have no reason to end my life but I can't resist the impulse," the girl said.

A train on a railroad north of Verdun, France was blown to pieces Monday night by shells from a battery of French guns of long range. The train was carrying a detachment of German soldiers to reinforce the army of Crown Prince Frederick William in the forest of the Argonne French aviators bombarded the railway station at Biaches, near Peronne, inside the German lines, and practically destroyed the structure. Severe damage was caused to the stores of food and ammunition held nt the station, which served as a commssary base for the kaiser's forces in the region between Roye and the River Somme.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Sam Baldock, a negro, shot and killed his wife and himself at Eagle Rock, near Covington, Saturday. The killing followed a dispute between Baldock and another negro, an exconvict, over alleged unfaithfulness of the woman.

W, P. Forbes, ran over Peyton Johnson, an eight-year-old negro boy at Hancock and Clay streets, Richmond early last night with his automobile. The boy suffered a fractured skull, a broken arm and other injuries.

An unidentified white man was run down at Sixth and Grace streets, Richmond, yesterday afternoon, by John W. Wiekman, superintendent of schools of Hanover County, and suffered a fractured skull and other injuries, when Wickman's automobile passed over him.

Between 150 and 200 business men and other citizens of Petersburg met Monday night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to take action on the proposition to annex Petersburg with Hopewell and City Point. After some discussion is was determined to abandon the government annexation of Petersburg with Hopewell, inasmuch as it was not deemed feasible.

Announcement is made by Attorney General Pollard of Virginia, that the state will ask the United States Supreme Court to dismiss the suit against J. P. Morgan, Jr., which was brought to recover the will of Martha Washington, Mr. Morgan has turned the will over to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, thus bringing the case to an end so far as the state is concerned.

Neither Governor Stuart nor Judge Keith, it is said will make any disposition of the Martha Washington will which was recently surrendered by J. P. Morgan and which is now locked in the steel vault at the Governor's office. Whether the historic document will be placed in the State Library, presented to Mount Vernon or returned to the archives of Fairfax courthouse achives will be decided it was said, by the State Legislature.

The body of a man, thought to be John Allington, of Newark, N. J., was found on the Chesapeake and Ohio tracks above Lynchburg Monday night having been killed by the eastbound local passenger train, A portion of the man's clothing and his watch were found on the engine's pilot. The engineer did not know he had run over a man. A companion of Allington who was located later said the pair had visited Lynchburg Monday from Blacony Falls in quest of work. He did not know his companion had been killed.

Luther Winston, a young man of Richmond, was arrested Monday on a warrant sworn out by John Salmons, of Henrico county, charging him with an attempted criminal assault against his wife, Mrs. Nora Salmons. The alleged attack is charged to have taken place at the Salmons home on Saturday. Winston is said to have been a frequent visitor at the Salmons home. Winston is emphatically denies the offense, and states that he will have certain disclosures to make which will result in the dismissal of the case when it comes to trial.

The trustees of the Presbyterian Orphanage at Lynchburg in annual session yesterday named a committee consisting of Dr. A. M. Fraser, Staunton; the Rev. E. T. Wellford, Newport News, and J. Hoge Tyler, Radford, to represent the board in any questions pertaining to the institution which may come up before the Virginia Synod, which meets at Charlestown, W. Va., October 19. Reports showed the institution to be in good condition, with a sufficient increase in donations to maintain the 119 children in the orphanage.

After deliberating half an hour the jury in the Circuit Court at Manassas yesterday brought in a verdict finding Wilbur King, of Nokesville, guilty of a misdemeanor in attempting to assault a young married woman Judge Thornton fined him $50 and sentenced him to six months in jail The alleged attempted assault took place in June at the woman's home on the farm near Nokesville in the absence of her husband. She fought off King's attacks and finally drove King off with a gun. King is a married man, 43 years old, and has five children.

Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, aged about thirty-six and Patrolman A. H. Galbraith of the "prity squad" in Richmond, were both served with bench warrants in Police Court yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct and fighting in court. The trouble grew out of Galbraith's testimony in a case in which Mrs. Taylor was charged with conducting a disorderly house. The officer "peeped" over a transom and then made the arrest. The woman became incensed at the officer's testimony and slapped him. The officer retaliated by shoving her against the reporters' bench and grabbed her as if he were going to choke her.

Ben Hinsley, charged with the murder of Dave Wilson, at Forest City N. C., was taken from Danville to Hickory, N. C., to stand trial yesterday. Hinsley woh is young was working with his eighteen-year-old wife in a Schoolfield cotton factory when officers arrested him. He was willing to go back and believes he can prove he killed Wilson in selfdefense. The murder occurred more than a month ago. Hinsley and his wife escaped, went to Danville and obtained employment in the Schoolfield mills, and they were joined by Ralph Brown, who is also charged with being a party to the crime. Brown was arrested a few days ago in North Carolina, and he told the authorities where they could find Hinsley.

MUST STRIKE HARD

French War Experts on the Allies and the Balkans.

Paris, Oct., 6—Russia's ultimatum to Bulgaria is welcomed in Paris as a means of clearing the Balkan situation. Little doubt is felt here that France will take similar action, and that if the Russian minister departs from Sofia, he will be accompanied by the representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy.

Jean Herbette and other specialists in foreign politics are agreed that the Allies must strike hard and swiftly if they are to accomplish their purpose in the Balkans and that half measures would be worse than useless. They state that the Entente Powers should send in 500,000 or 600,000 men. It is stated that the Italians have 500,000 idle men under arms Owing to the position of Italy in reference to certain Balkan peoples, the Italians might be precluded from landing troops at Saloniki, but the suggestion is made that they might assist the British and French at the Dardanelles.

It is conceded that if Bulgaria should enter the war the situation would be a dangerous one for the Allies. Unless this blow were parried quickly, military strategists believe, the Serbians might be crushed between the Germans and Austrians on the north and the Bulgarians on the south, in which case a Teutonic enemy might reach Constantinople in a comparatively short time.

BROKER ENDS LIFE

Charles C. McDonald, of Raleigh, Is Found Dead in Country Club. Summer Home.

Raleigh, N. C. Oct. 6—Charles C. McDonald, a prominent and widely known bond and stock broker, of Raleigh, about fifty-nine years old, was found dead last night about 11 o'clock in the summer house of the Raleigh Country Club, two miles from Raleigh a pistol wound through his heart, his coat neatly folded, lying to one side, an automatic pistol and an open knife on the floor, an evident case of suicide.

He had been in ill health for several weeks, and late this afternoon his wife found a note left at the house saying he was going away At one time he was a member of the Board of Aldermen of Raleigh.

TRIED TO CURE BOY BY FAITH

Indictments Returned in Case Ferreted Out by Federal Judge Pritchard.

Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which holds its sessions periodically in Richmond, took an active part in ferreting out a case of more than ordinary interest a few days ago near Ashevillie, N. C., his home city, according to news from that place today

When information reached the Buncombe county authorities that the ten-year-old son of W. M. Embler and his wife, residing in the Newfound section, had died through lack of proper medical attention, Sheriff Mitchell, of that county, accompanied by Judge Pritchard, went to the Embler home and ascertained that while the little boy was ill with typhoid fever his parents, together with Charles Plemons, a neighbor, and Lewis Ranson, a negro preacher, endeavored to effect a cure by faith and prayer.

So loudly and constantly did the quartette pray in the sick room, Judge Pritchard and the sheriff learned, that they greatly interfered with the work of the trained nurse, Miss Ida Johnson, who had been engaged by the county to take charge of the case.

When Miss Johnson first went to the Embler home on September 18th, she was refused admittance, and it was only after she enlisted the aid of Deputy Sheriff W. H. Wright, that she was permitted to attend the ill youngster.

As a result of the activity of Judge Pritchard, and the county authorities, indictments have been returned against the quartette and they will be tried at the next term of the County Court.

It appears that all four of them recently embraced the faith of an itinerant preacher from Newport Tenn whose principle doctrine is that all cases of illness should be trusted to the Lord.

The white defendants are out on $500 bond each. The colored preacher, unable to furnish bond, went to jail. Since then he is said to have spent most of his time praying loudly. He refused to retain an attorney, saying that he had placed all his affairs in the hands of Providence.

BULGARIAN NEUTRALITY

Promise to Make Country Great and Powerful After War.

Berlin, Oct. 6—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Budapest says the Bulgarian premier M. Radoslavoff, when receiving the delegates of the Stambouloff and Ghenadiey parties at Sofia. said:

"Our relations with Roumania are cordial. The conflict between Roumania and the central powers already has been settled. Roumania will be neutral duringthe whole duration of the offensive of the central powers against Serbia, even if new complications arise in the Balkans. The Roumanian government has declared that it is disinterested as to Serbia Greece will maintain the same attitude during the offensive of the central powers."

The Lokal Anzeiger's correspondent also sends the following from the Narodni Prava, the official organ of the government at Sofia.

'Everybody can see that the days of the most serious importance will come. Everybody shall be ready to sacrifice what is dearest to him. If everybody does his duty Bulgaria will be great and powerful."

KILLED BY OWN ENGINE

Mount Olive, N. C., Oct. 6—Leaving his cab while his engine still was in motion to remove an obstruction from the track J. M. Powers, engineer, was run over and instantly killed 18 miles from here a day or two ago.

Powers was operating the locomotive for a lumber firm he was employed by when he saw a log on the track ahead. He jumped from the engine, which was going at a low rate of speed to remove it when he was struck. His death was discovered when the engine ran wild into the camp.

Workmen went back over the track and found the body.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1914, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV, of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six of article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding sixty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates, and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly shall continue longer than ninety days, except that with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place, not for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house bo concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency, by vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.
